May 2014

The forsythia bush has been a sign of hope for me this year in the journey through Lent to Easter. As I've walked almost daily by the bushes alongside the alley on my way to and from the office I've watched the slow transformation – from the buds closed so tightly - to the full blooms which seemed to happen almost instantaneously on Easter morn. New life. Resurrection.

Likely, it's been the same every Spring but this year I've been acutely more aware. Scripture calls it, "eyes to see and ears to hear." (See Proverbs 20:12 Matthew 13:6, or Mark 8: 18.)

New life. Resurrection. Where will I see it in the days and weeks ahead? Where will you see it? In a new blossom? In the eyes of a neighbor? At the hospital bed? Or in a malaria net?

Where will you encounter resurrection…with the eyes of your heart? The risen Lord surrounds us today and for eternity. Alleluia! He is risen indeed!

In Sympathy

We extend our sympathy to the family of Betty Gustafson, mother of JoAnne Manore, upon Betty's death, March 29. Betty's funeral was at Saron on April 1.

Also, our thoughts and prayers to the family of long-time member, Arlene Malkin, upon her death, April 3. Arlene's funeral was at Saron on April 8.

God is our refuge and strength. Psalm 46:1

Thank you

Thank you for visits, church bulletins, Dorcas lunches, and prayers. Thank you, Pastor, for coming there on the final day. Arlene needed you; we needed you; and the Lord needed you to be there! Thank you for your attendance at the funeral; for singing in Swedish or English; for bringing food; for taking food home; for setting up and taking down; for hugs, for smiles, for making Arlene's kidney bean salad; for flowers on the tables. Thank you for the beautifully selected cards (no duplicates); the nice notes; the donations to the church. We are truly blessed to have a Saron family! The family of Arlene Malkin

This is a shocking story of love and the unbreakable bond between mother and child.

There will be lots to talk about with this book. Come and join the discussion and bring any ideas for book choices for next season. We will finalize our selections. When we resume on October 5th, the book talk will be about The End of Your Life Book Club, by Will Schwalbe Watch for the complete 2014-15 schedule in the next newsletter. Questions? Mission Trip Planned to Racine, WI!

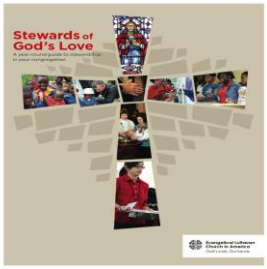
It's time for another fundraiser to help send 5 of our youth (Tim Standen, Connor Ashley, Drew Huff, Colin Ashley, and Austin Kamala) and 2 adults (Ed Brunner and Eric Standen) to Racine, Wisconsin for a work camp in June. The week's theme is "Repairing Home and Lives." You are invited to be a stockholder in the group. The cost is $1 per share and any amount of shares can be purchased and any age of person can purchase stock(s).

As a stock holder you will receive 1) a stockholder's certificate, 2) postcard(s) from our trip, and 3) participation in a stockholder's meeting upon the group's return, which includes an ice cream social (for stockholders only) and presentation of our trip with pictures and reflections! Plus, you will have the joy of giving this group of youth a wonderful experience as they demonstrate Jesus' love and compassion to the people through painting, building wheelchair ramps, doing interior and exterior carpentry, or performing other home repair projects.

Stock will be on sale, after each service, April 27, and May 4. Or, you can purchase stock from any of the participants. Thank you for your support!

Support



You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest commandment. And a second is like it. You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
Matthew 22:37b-39

IN: WHAT GOD HAS ENTRUSTED TO OUR CARE

May: Stewards of Time

"We are busy people! God has given us 24 hours in each day to live, work, serve and praise. How are we using our time? How might we best steward the time that God has given to us, as individuals and a congregation, to love God and our neighbor? Reimagine the offering: What would it look like to give a percentage of our time away to serve our neighbor? Maybe not 10 percent, but what about 1 percent (1.5 hours/week or 2 percent (3 hours/week)?" www.elca.org/growingstewards, page 24

If each of us at Saron decided to give 1.5-3 hours a week to serve God and our neighbors what would be the best way to do that? What activities would we engage in? Saron is a church that rolls up its sleeves and gets to work. Would we donate time to activities here at Saron? Council? Golden Hammers? Teaching a SS class or Circle lesson? Providing refreshments? Choir? Shoveling snow? Mowing the lawn? Serving the community at Soup Kitchen? Tutoring? Serving on community boards? Mentoring? Driving people to church or doctor's appointments or grocery stores? Spending time with a friend? We thank God for all that Saron does already and for all the new offerings we can "reimagine".

Let's take some time this month and "reimagine" how best to blend our talents with our time and energy to serve God and our neighbors. God's work, our hands.

God's work, our hands.

ELCA Good Gifts

This Lenten season, Saron collected donations for the ELCA Good Gifts program. The funds that were collected will buy: 18 Units of chicks, 12 Units of honey bees, 19 pigs, and 10 goats!! Saron's sponsorship of the ELCA GOOD GIFTS program will help people living in poverty escape hunger, grow crops and provide much needed income for their families.

Thank you for supporting" God's Work, Our Hands"

A Special Message for Travelers and Those Who Prefer Electronic Giving

Your consistent support is very much appreciated. Saron offers the option to give electronically for your convenience. Please contact the church office if you have any questions. Thanks.
